Let's think about advocates

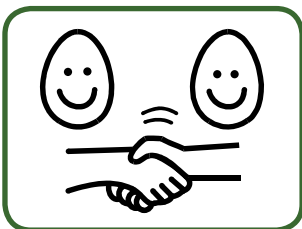

Who else can you talk to?

- Sometimes it can be really hard to say important things
- Advocates visit Danshell homes and hospitals. Advocates are trained to listen and to help you say what you need to say
- If you live in England the advocates are from Voice Ability. If you live in Scotland the advocates are from Central Advocacy Partners

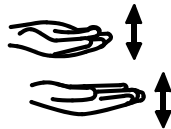

You can meet with an advocate

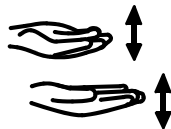

- If you would like to meet an advocate you just need to ask your key worker or the manager
- They will arrange for the advocate to meet you

How well do you understand what an advocate does?

How do you feel about meeting an advocate?

Would you like an advocate?
